CHILDREN'S LEGAL RIGHTS JOURNAL

About the Children's Legal Rights Journal

For over twenty-five years, the Children's Legal Rights Journal (CLRJ) has been a leading source of information on children's law and policy for lawyers and other child-serving professionals who are interested in legal issues affecting children and families. The CLRJ contains articles on topics such as child welfare, juvenile justice, education, immigration, domestic relations, interfamily violence, and international children rights. Each issue also contains case, legislation, and news updates, as well as book reviews and descriptions of promising programs and approaches. One issue each year is devoted to articles authored in connection with a topical symposium hosted by Journal editors.

In 2013, the CLRJ moved to a free, online format published by Loyola University Chicago School of Law's Civitas ChildLaw Center, in cooperation with the National Association of Counsel for Children. This new format allows for more timely treatment of emerging issues in children's law and expands access to the CLRJ's content to a national and international audience. Under this new format, the Children's Legal Rights Journal is published three times annually.

Article Submissions

The CLRJ invites submissions of unsolicited manuscripts. Manuscripts should be submitted to: Editor-in-Chief, Children's Legal Rights Journal, 25 E. Pearson, Chicago, IL 60611. Citations in manuscripts should conform to the most recent version of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation, published by the Harvard Law Review Association. All citation should be contained in footnotes. Please include your name, title and degrees at the top of the first page and your current resume. We also request an abstract of 250 words or less. Manuscripts should be submitted as MS Word files. Completed manuscripts should be submitted electronically at childLRJ@luc.edu. A statement transferring copyright to Loyola will be required for articles that are accepted for publication.

Copyright

Except expressly agreed to in writing by the Author and the Journal, both the Author and the Journal grant permission to nonprofit institutions to duplicate the Work for educational purposes, provided that (1) copies are distributed at or below cost; (2) the Author, Journal, and Work are identified by names, volume, first page number, and year of Work's publication; and (3) proper notice of copyright is affixed to each duplication.

Information on the National Association of Counsel for Children

Founded in 1977, the National Association of Counsel for Children is a non-profit policy advocacy, training, and professional membership organization dedicated to enhancing the well being of America's children and families. The NACC is located in The Kempe Center on The Children's Hospital campus in Aurora, Colorado. In today's world millions of children are the subjects of judicial proceedings each year. They are involved in the court system as victims of abuse and neglect, as juvenile offenders, as subjects of custody, visitation and adoption proceedings, and as participants in civil damages litigation.

The NACC works to improve the lives of children and families by ensuring that these proceedings produce justice. Specifically, our mission is:

- Ensuring that children and families are provided with well resourced, high quality legal advocates when their rights are at stake
- Implementing best practices by providing certification, training, education, and technical assistance to promote specialized high quality legal advocacy
- Advancing systemic improvement in child-serving agencies, institutions and court systems
- Promoting a safe and nurturing childhood through legal and policy advocacy for the rights and interests of children and families
