CONTENTS

SYMPOSIUM ARTICLES

Designing Better Institutions to Enforce Competition Law: A Symposium Introduction ................................................... Spencer Weber Waller 411

When the Going Gets Tight: Institutional Solutions when Antitrust Enforcement Resources are Scarce .................................................. Michal S. Gal 417

Stranger in a Strange Land: An Outsider’s View of Antitrust and the Courts ................................................................. Neil Komesar 443

Designing Competition Law Institutions: Values, Structure, and Mandate ................................................................. Michael J. Trebilcock & Edward M. Iacobucci 455

Antitrust and Institutions: Design and Change .............................................................. Eleanor M. Fox 473

A Model of Antitrust Regulatory Strategy ............................................................. Allan Fels 489

Reforming the Enforcement of the Japanese Antimonopoly Law ................................................................. Mitsuo Matsushita 521

Designing Antitrust Agencies for More Effective Outcomes: What Antitrust Can Learn from Restaurant Guides

................................................................. D. Daniel Sokol 573

ARTICLES

The (Un)Constitutionality of Section 632 of the Edge Act: An Analysis Under Article III and Theories of Protective Jurisdiction

................................................................. Elizabeth R. Sheyn 587

The Private Antitrust Remedy: Lessons from the American Experience

................................................................. Edward D. Cavanagh 629