CASE COMMENTS

FEDERAL CIVIL PROCEDURE—CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin ................................................................. 264

Holding that Federal Class Action Role in the Light of Due Process Requires Notice by Plaintiff at His Own Expense to Potential Members of the Class.
ILLINOIS INSURANCE LAW,
Maryland Casualty Co. v. Iowa Mutual Insurance Co. 284

Holding that the Standard Omnibus Clause Extends Coverage Whenever the First Permittee Has the Permission of the Named Insured and Restrictions as to Use or Operation are Ineffectual to Limit Coverage.

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW—EQUAL PROTECTION, WOMEN’S RIGHTS,
Frontiero v. Richardson 295

Holding that Uniform Services Fringe Benefit Statute which Presumes Spouses of Male Members to be Dependent, but Requires Spouses of Female Members to be Dependent in Fact, is Violative of Due Process.
